I confirm that the participant is suitable for sport and that there are no known health reasons that speak against the participation in the booked event. I commit myself to inform HOOP-CAMPS e.V. about any changes that might be relevant for the participation in this event.

Consent to the use of the health data:

I agree that HOOP-CAMPS e.V. may use the participant's data for the purpose of participation in the above-mentioned event and until the end of the event. The consent can be revoked at any time with effect for the future. However, a revocation has no effect on the use of data that has already taken place.

The consent is necessary to avoid damage and/or harm to the participant's health. Therefore, the participant gives his/her consent in his/her own interest.

Nevertheless, HOOP-CAMPS e.V. is granted an immediate right of revocation by the participant in the event of revocation or in the event that the participant fails to inform HOOP-CAMPS e.V. about health information required for the event. In these cases, the withdrawal results in the immediate exclusion of the participant from the event - even if the event has already started.

We do not want to exclude anyone. In the past, people with disabilities and other limitations in terms of sport abilities have always taken part in our events. HOOP-CAMPS not only accepts this, but also supports it. The request for the aforementioned data serves the well-being of the participant and is not intended to discriminate against anyone.
